

Vocabulary

During this section, you will be asked to interpret 20 random, single terms. These will be words that are commonly used in a variety of basic day-to-day situations, such as checking into a hotel, going to the bank, or a doing routine checkup at your doctor's. As you go about your day, think about how you would interpret the vocabulary in the conversations you participate in and hear around you into your other working language.

Vocabulary Exercise

You will not be asked to interpret highly technical terms. Below are some examples of the kinds of terms you may be asked to interpret. Please note, these are only sample terms that are similar to the Language Checkup words.

- Lungs _____
- Interest rate _____
- Luggage _____
- Kidney _____
- Maiden name _____
- Payment plan _____
- Circulatory system _____
- Knee _____

- Cardiologist _____
- Quantity _____
- Appointment _____
- Gas meter _____
- Driver's license _____
- Confirmation number _____
- Diabetes _____

LANGUAGE CHECKUP TIP

WORK BIDIRECTIONALLY!

Make sure you can interpret terms from English into your other working language, and from your other working language into English.